On April 11-12, the first edition of Fastener Fair USA took place at the Huntington Convention Center in Cleveland, OH and successfully drew the attendance of more than 2,000 fastener related buyers and professionals, exceeding the expectation of the show organizer. 250 exhibitors from 20 countries came to exhibit at the 2018 fair located at the heart of the Midwest manufacturing region of the U.S. and established face-to-face contact with local buyers from the distribution, automotive, aerospace, energy, civil engineering and construction industries. The next edition of Fastener Fair USA is scheduled to take place at the Cobo Center in Detroit, MI on May 22-23, 2019.

Wire & Tube Düsseldorf 04/16-20

Following the success of 2016, Wire & Tube Düsseldorf once again opened its gates at Düsseldorf Exhibition Centre on April 16-20, 2018. As 2018 is the 30th anniversary of this show, Wire & Tube Düsseldorf 2018 not only became bigger in scale, but also became more international than ever. This year the show drew around 2,600 exhibitors in attendance (on a net exhibition space of 118,000 sqm) to showcase their latest wire and tube technology and service. In addition to leading Taiwanese companies coming to exhibit at the show, Fastener World Inc. was also present this year to help fastener companies, which would like to tap into European and neighboring markets, reinforce their promotion and strive for more exposure in the int'l market through on-site dissemination of free magazines and e-books. According to the post-show statistics of the organizer, the 2018 show drew the attendance of more than 70,000 visitors from around 130 countries in total to establish business contact, make inquiries and place orders. The next show is scheduled to take place in 2020 again. ■
